Things to Do
at MSU!

Beyond the academics, visitors can find so many things to see and do on campus without having to sign up for a single class!

- 1 MSU MUSEUM – Michigan's first Smithsonian-affiliate, this museum is filled to the brim with research artifacts and natural wonders from around the world. And both the kids and adults love the dinosaurs!
- 2 GARDENS - W. J. BEAL BOTANICAL GARDENS – The oldest continuously-operated garden of its type in the U.S. with over 2,700 species organized in economic, systematic landscape and ecological groupings. And the MSU Horticulture Gardens – A family of three adjoining gardens including research gardens, landscape arboretum and the delightful 4-H Children's Garden.
- 3 ABRAMS PLANETARIUM – Sit back and enjoy the wonders of the universe in the sky theatre.
- 4 BEAUMONT TOWER – This is the iconic bell tower where carillonneurs play noontime recitals and legends tell of first kisses at midnight and engagements in the shadow of the tower.
- 5 ELI AND EDYTHE BROAD ART MUSEUM – This Zaha Hadid-designed art museum presents groundbreaking, international contemporary art across all media and is housed in a pleated stainless steel and glass multi-angled building that in itself is an architectural wonder.
- 6 MSU FARMS – Colts racing, beef calves frolicking and mooing dairy cows waiting to be milked are a few of the sights to see when visiting the farms.
- 7 WHARTON CENTER FOR PERFORMING ARTS – Catch the latest major touring Broadway blockbusters plus a great lineup of performing arts at Wharton.
- 8 MSU DAIRY STORE – It's always hard to choose between the 32 flavors of some of the freshest ice cream you'll ever taste. Or pick up some award-winning cheese varieties. Smiles guaranteed!
- 9 DEMMER SHOOTING SPORTS EDUCATION & TRAINING CENTER – This training site for Michigan State University archery, rifle and pistol club teams is open to the public and promotes the safe use of firearms and archery equipment.
- 10 BIG TEN SPORTING EVENTS – Spartan football, basketball and hockey are among the favorite reasons for a visit to MSU. The resounding chants of Go Green, Go White echo across campus. Make time for one last stop. Your visit won't be complete without a photo taken in front of the bronze Spartan Statue near the stadium.
